Digital work has become increasingly common, taking a wide variety of forms including working from home, mobile work, gig work, crowdsourcing, and online volunteering. It is organizationally, interpretively, spatially, and temporally complex. An array of innovative methodologies have begun to emerge to capture this complexity, whether through re-purposing existing tools, devising entirely novel methods, or mixing old and new. This volume brings together some of these techniques in an accessible sourcebook for management, business, organizational, and work researchers. It presents a range of innovative methods which capture and analyse digitally-related work practices through reflexive accounts of real-world research projects, and elucidates the range of challenges such methods may raise for research practice. It outlines debates and recommendations, and provides further reading and information to support research practice. The book is organised in four sections that reflect different areas of focus and methodological approaches: working with screens; digital working practices; distributed work and organizing; and digital traces of work. It then concludes by reflecting on the methodological issues, research ethics, requisite skills, and future of research given the intensification of digital work during a global pandemic that has impacted all aspects of our lives.

Dass das Teilen in der Gesellschaft der Gegenwart einmal eine so große Rolle spielen würde, hätte bis vor kurzem wohl kaum jemand vorausgesagt. Eine globale Protestbewegung brachte ein tiefes Bedürfnis zum Ausdruck, alternative Wege einzuschlagen, die auf anderen Werten beruhten als jene, die allem Anschein nach zur Finanzkrise geführt hatten. Gleichzeitig sind hoch entwickelte Informations- und Kommunikationstechnologien, die das Teilen erleichtern, nicht nur beinahe überall verfügbar; sie stehen auch im Zentrum des Interesses zahlreicher Menschen, die viel Zeit und Einsatz aufbringen, um mit diesen Technologien zu experimentieren und sie in die Abläufe ihres Alltagslebens eingliedern. Eine ganze Generation von medienkompetenten, radikal globalisierten Menschen wächst mit der täglichen und persönlichen Erfahrung auf, dass das Teilen von (digitalen) Gütern ein unverzichtbares Element im Aufbau gemeinschaftlicher Beziehungen verschiedenster Art ist. Heute stehen diese Erfahrungen im krassen Widerspruch zu anderen gesellschaftlichen Erfahrungen, bei denen Wettbewerb und individuelles Bestizstreben vorherrschen. Dieser Band will einen Beitrag zur kollektiven Arbeit leisten, das Teilen in der Gesellschaft neu zu denken.
