Christians today make strong professions of the Lord being their only God and that they serve him faithfully. Unfortunately, however, many of these same Christians have little to no relationship with and knowledge of God. This is largely due in part because they do not truly know who he is. Contrary to the modern-day pharisees that tell us that he is too hard to understand, this book, in very meticulous detail, will lay out in a very easy to understand manner of learning who the Creator God is. "The "Lord of Glory" covers hundreds upon hundreds of scriptures from numerous books of the Holy Bible, and nothing else, to accurately present the Lord as he describes himself in his word. Over the course of three sections, Jacob M. Thompson, explains not just the Lord himself, but how he created us, and refutes some of the false depictions of the Lord people have been led to believe. If you have ever wanted to get to know the Creator God above, without all the annoying and convoluted scholarly jargon, this is definitely the book for you!

The life of Moshe ben Maimon (Maimonides) remains a mystery to many within evangelical Christianity.

However, he is lauded as a second Moses by many within modern Judaism. Does he deserve that title? Maimonides's via negativa created a rationale for rejecting the messiahship claims of Jesus in Rabbinic Judaism. Therefore, this book seeks to illustrate that Maimonides, in his desire to create an anti-Christian apologetic regarding the incarnation, fashioned a Judaism that does not reflect the truths of the Tanakh (Old Testament) and developed a Judaism that was untenable for the Jewish people of the twenty-first century. Many Jewish people today are turning in a thousand and one different directions for spiritual answers, but not in the only way that will offer the way to God: Jesus of Nazareth (John 14:6). This work examines the history of Maimonides, his teachings, and an apologetic approach to bring the gospel back to the Jewish people (Rom 1:16).

Critical care medicine is a dynamic and exciting arena where complex pathophysiologic states require extensive knowledge and up-to-date clinical information. An extensive knowledge of basic pathophysiology, as well as awareness of the appropriate diagnostic tests and treatments that are used to optimize care in the critically ill is essential. Since our first edition 7 years ago, new information crucial to the care and understanding of the critically ill patient has rapidly accumulated. Because this knowledge base crosses many different disciplines, a comprehensive multidisciplinary approach presenting the information is essential, similar to the multidisciplinary approach that is used to care for the critically ill patient. We have strived to provide this content in an easily digestible format that uses a variety of teaching tools to facilitate understanding of the presented concepts and to enhance information retention. To meet the demand to provide comprehensive and diverse education in order to understand the pathogenesis and optimum

God's Question: What Do You Think God Sees When He Looks At You? Vitally important, possibly the most important question any of us will ever ponder. Why is God asking this question? What is He saying to His believers? Book includes over 1200 answers from people around the world. Examples: Thank you for the question, you have challenged [me]. God isn't looking at who and what I am, He sees what and who I can and will be. He's not judging the outward appearance that man sees, God is judging my heart. He sees forgiveness of sins through the blood of Jesus. Chapter subjects: Answers; Fear and how to conquer it; Unforgiveness; God's Covenant; Impacting people now and in the future. John 14:12, NIV 12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me, though he do not see me, shall live: and he that believeth not on me, shall be damned. 13 And whosoever shall keep my commandments, shall not see death: but whosoever shall not keep my commandments, shall see death. 14 Verily, verily, I say unto you, if a man shall keep my commandments, he shall not see death, but shall have eternal life. 15 Whosoever shall love me, shall keep my commandments: and whosoever shall keep my commandments, shall abide in me, and my Father shall love him, and we will come unto him, and will make our abode with him. 16 Whosoever shall love me, shall keep my commandments: and whosoever shall keep my commandments, shall abide in me, and my Father shall love him, and we will come unto him, and will make our abode with him. 17 Whosoever shall love me, shall keep my commandments: and whosoever shall keep my commandments, shall abide in me, and my Father shall love him, and we will come unto him, and will make our abode with him. 18 Whosoever shall love me, shall keep my commandments: and whosoever shall keep my commandments, shall abide in me, and my Father shall love him, and we will come unto him, and will make our abode with him. 19 Whosoever shall love me, shall keep my commandments: and whosoever shall keep my commandments, shall abide in me, and my Father shall love him, and we will come unto him, and will make our abode with him. 20 In that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and the Father in me, and that we come unto him, and will make our abode with him.

History is not a mere chronicle of facts, but a dialogue between competing interpretations of the past; it should be taught as such. Teaching history in this way makes it both intellectually demanding and more interesting, while at the same time helps students acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to become functioning citizens in a democracy. The opening chapters provide the rationale for the study of history, its epistemological basis, and the logic of the

The Kingdom of God Come Upon You By: Richard Charles Carlson Author Richard Charles Carlson wrote this book for you to understand why things happen in this world whether it is good or bad. He wants other people to be happy and to accept others for who they are with love. You should have no room in your heart to hate anyone. Carlson's main focus is to try to have a better understanding of what the Bible is all about from the beginning to the end. He uses scripture to show proof of his belief through faith of why people exist and our purpose. In the book, Carlson writes about the events before and after this universe was created. His main focus is on Jesus Christ and the war with Satan for people to understand good and evil and to then know good and evil by examining themselves. Carlson finds that everything in the Bible is very important, from the beginning to the end. He refers to it as "Jesus' Book." He discovers more about God's kingdom by revelations through visage, dreams, and even through other people. Carlson sees the power of God's kingdom through the peace in his heart that can only come from Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Carlson desires to bless his Father in the Highest of Heaven and gain more
