Popular blogger Anna Newell Jones of AndThenWeSaved.com delivers this self-help manifesto that reveals how a "spending fast" will help you get on the road to living debt-free. In 2009, young photographer Anna Newell Jones was rapidly suffocating under the weight of too much debt. An inveterate "spender," she was in way over her head, to the tune of almost $24,000. She knew her debt was only going to get worse if she didn't take action, but she didn't know where to look for help. On a whim, Anna decided to go on a spending fast—an idea she heard in passing but knew little about. Creating her own method, she learned what worked and what didn't and wrote about it on her blog, AndThenWeSaved.com. Amazingly, Anna was able to eliminate all $23,605.10 of her debt in only 15 months! She was interviewed in Forbes, Self, Glamour, Good Housekeeping, and the Chicago Tribune. Anna's journey inspired people and showed them that they too could change the way they dealt with their own money woes. The Spender's Guide To Debt-Free Living takes readers through a detailed step-by-step plan on how to do a Spending Fast and get out of debt, including: Creating a personalized Debt-Free Life Pledge. Understanding where your money is going when you're in debt, and where it will come from to pay it off. Learning why putting money into a savings account before (or while) paying off debt may not be the best idea for you. Finding additional income sources and generating side gigs. Re-integrating spending into your life once you're out of debt, so that you stay out of debt. Filled with do-it-yourself ideas, insight from experts, and tons of motivational tips and real-life practical advice, The Spender's Guide to Debt-Free Living proves that you don't have to win the lottery or get a new job to change your life.

Many people believe that living debt-free is only for those who make a ton of money or people who just don't have a life. This book demonstrates that living debt-free is for anyone who makes up their mind that they are going to do it. It walks you through a proven four-step process for paying off all your debt and getting on the road to financial freedom.

McCall's program supports people as they uncover their deep-seated attitudes about money, provides simple, step-by-step tools for healing physical, emotional, and spiritual deprivation, and teaches skills and strategies for experiencing lasting personal and financial fulfillment, even in the midst of economic challenges and reversals.

Credit is so easily obtained, and credit card applications flow into our mailboxes virtually every day. Many couples find themselves deeply in debt and not even sure of how they got there, let alone how they can get out of it. Larry Burkett has the solution! His bestselling book, Debt-Free Living, has been updated and modernized. Debt-Free Living has been providing poignant and biblical teaching on debt for over a decade. This updated resource will teach the consumer about the origin of most financial troubles and help him or her break the 'debt cycle.' Debt-Free Living is a necessary resource to battle the temptation and trappings of debt that are weighing you down.

It's time for a Debt Free Life... Because: If you choose to enter into debt, you have metaphorically accepted an employment contract. By this I mean that you have become the employee of someone else (whoever you borrow from), because every month you work for them. You see your paycheck / your income every month must go to pay your expenses. Part of your income goes to your rent, a part goes to your taxes, a part goes to groceries, a part goes to car payments and gas, a part goes to insurance, a part goes to transportation and so on.. And then taking on some bad debt then includes a part of your income having to be paid to the monthly premium on that debt. Now most of us are on this treadmill, and constantly working for someone else. But here in this simple book you are given the ABC's of living Debt Free.
