Die größte Herausforderung unserer Zeit Ob selbstfahrende Autos, 3-D-Drucker oder Künstliche Intelligenz: Aktuelle technische Entwicklungen werden unsere Art zu leben und zu arbeiten grundlegend verändern. Die Vierte Industrielle Revolution hat bereits begonnen. Ihr Merkmal ist die ungeheuer schnelle und systematische Verschmelzung von Technologien, die die Grenzen zwischen der physischen, der digitalen und der biologischen Welt immer stärker durchbrechen. Wie kein anderer ist Klaus Schwab, der Vorsitzende des Weltwirtschaftsforums, in der Lage aufzuzeigen, welche politischen, wirtschaftlichen, sozialen und kulturellen Herausforderungen diese Revolution für uns alle mit sich bringt.

Financial markets across the Arabian Peninsula have gone from being small, quasi-medieval structures in the 1960s to large world-class groupings of financial institutions. This evolution has been fueled by vast increases in income from oil and natural gas. The Financial Markets of the Arab Gulf presents and analyzes the banks, stock markets, investment companies, money changers and sovereign wealth funds that have grown from this oil wealth and how this income has acted as a buffer between Gulf society at large and the newfound cash reserves of Gulf Cooperation Council states (Saudi Arabia, the United Arab Emirates, Qatar, Kuwait, Oman and Bahrain) over the last fifty years. By assessing the development of institutions like the Abu Dhabi Investment Authority, the Saudi Arabian Monetary Authority, the Public Investment Fund and the National Bank of Kuwait, The Financial Markets of the Arab Gulf evaluates the growth of the markets and provides a detailed, critical, snapshot of the current form and function of the Gulf's financial markets. It argues that the markets have been controlled by various state institutions for socio-political reasons. In particular, the Saudi state has used its sophisticated regulatory regime to push for industrialization and diversification, which culminated in the Vision 2030 plan. The UAE, Qatar, Kuwait, Bahrain and Oman have also been strongly involved in establishing modern markets for similar purposes but have done so through different means, with varying results, and each in line with what has been considered their respective comparative advantages. Along with critically surveying these institutions and their role in global finance, the book also presents case studies depicting transactions typical to the region, including the highly profitable documentary credits of commercial banks, the financial scandal of certain financiers and their regulatory arbitrage between Bahrain and Saudi Arabia, a review of the Dubai's trade miracle, and an assessment of the value and importance of the privatization of Saudi Aramco.

Der Bericht liefert detaillierte Konjunkturprognosen für die Volkswirtschaften der OECD-Länder und einiger größerer Nichtmitglieder. Wirtschaftswachstum, Produktion, Preise, Löhne, Produktivität, Beschäftigung, Haushaltsdefizit und weitere Indikatoren werden in präzisen Analysen bewertet.

As Oman continues deals with extraordinary pressures on the oil market and as a result of the pressures brought by COVID-19, this 15-page special report on the power, water, and sustainability environment is a crucial snapshot as a sector on the verge of unprecedented relevance.

"I am having the best time of my life! I live the life of my dreams! I do what I love and I love what I do".How many of us have wished to say this?How many of us have a dream we are too afraid to reach for, because we think we will fail?How many of us think 'I am not good enough' to follow my dreams and passions?How many of us believe the 'real world' a 'proper job' is all about striving and grafting?I believe we have all been programmed to see work as something totally different to our passions and this is a fundamental flaw, because as a result we put our passions, our 'hobbies' on hold and in so doing we put our lives on hold.Well in 2003 I decided to do some things differently.I looked at who I was, who I wanted to be, who I always thought I would have become, at this stage in my life and I took action to reach my goals.In 2006, I then took a huge leap of faith to follow my dream! I have never looked back! the top quote now applies to me! I am now a certified Life Coach, specializing in 'PLANTING POSITIVITY'. (As well as an exhibited Artist, Yoga instructor, recorded singing artist and qualified Primary school teacher) I am regularly working one on one with clients, or in small groups, helping them to find their dreams, often as not buried in the back recesses of memory, alongside favourite, but forgotten toys, memories and photo albums! I help clients dust off these dreams, and most importantly release the fears and limitations, getting in the way and help them to re-establish the re-modelled dreams, in order to be the best they can be. I show people how their thoughts matter, what they create for themselves and with awareness, how the thoughts can be altered so they are continuously creating their hearts desires. Many people will self-sabotage their attempts to improve, they are too afraid to really embrace their uniqueness, their gifts, and their wonderfulness. Life is too short! Life really is about Joy! This is what I learnt!NOW I have put it all into an ebook "HOW TO PLANT POSITIVITY TO SOW SEEDS FOR SUCCESS!" so you, too can have access to this life changing information! There are 7 chapters to be read, one each week. In 7 weeks time you could be noticing some amazing changes.If you have liked my Planting Positivity columns in the Oman Observer weekend magazine you will LOVE this book! -"I use the strategies from Planting Positivity all the time. It is amazing how it has helped me not only cope with difficult and vast changes in my life, but appreciate all sorts of small things as well. I'm a bit of preacher of Planting Positivity at work when these young workers there, moan" .. by Sarah N. from UK- "It felt like a recipe, so simple to use and so obvious but unlike other things I tried, it did wonders". Agnes Bourgeois-Al Toki, Oman"Before I read Jenni Eden's book I was in a pit of negative thinking and anxiety. Now, a year on, run my own business and am the happiest I have been in a long time". Victoria Watson, Rona Mcmurtrie -"Jenni, thank you so much for the classes. I'm coping so much better with this turmoil in the UK than I thought I would. Any negativity I'm trying to replace with the positive sides. And so far, it's looking like all is coming together better than I thought it would."Jenni Eden - Thank you. Thank you for being in my life. Thank you for sharing your path of enlightenment. Thank you for helping me recognise that there is a natural path to our lives and as we follow it and look behind us we can see why things have slipped into place. Thank you for being there when I needed you just to help me vent and help me release the frustrations and worries that I often have. You voice and words are a constant in my life now and I'm so pleased to have you there. You do more than plant positivity, you help nurture ourselves and generate energy so that we can grow to be what our life path was supposed to be. Thank you xxNicholla Henderson-HallAbu Dhabi

"Emanzipation und feministische Politiken" zeigt das Zusammenspiel von Veränderungen in den Geschlechterverhältnissen und in den Vorstellungen von Emanzipation in unterschiedlichen historischen und geographischen Kontexten. Sozial-, kultur- und geisteswissenschaftliche Analysen setzen den Wandel von Politiken und Institutionen, kulturellen Repräsentationen und Subjekten in Verbindung mit Veränderungen in Konzepten und Praxen von Kritik, Emanzipation und Utopie. Quer zu den Disziplinen wird diskutiert, ob das Konzept der Emanzipation für geschlechterpolitische Anliegen heute noch zeitgemäß ist, und wenn ja, welche Verwandlungen notwendig sind, um an einem Projekt der Emanzipation festhalten zu können. Wie tauglich ist heute eigentlich noch die Idee von "Emanzipation"? Wie haben sich die Vorstellungen von Emanzipation im Wandel der Geschlechterverhältnisse immer weiter verändert und entwickelt?
