Fire Burn is based on diaries kept
during World War II by a single, young
professional
woman, Irene
Zarina White.
From September

Acces PDF That

1939 through
May 1946 Irene
lived under
four different
governments:
the Republic of Latvia, the Soviet Union,
Nazi Germany,
and the United States
Occupation. She
carefully

Acces PDF That Crumpled Paper Last Week

recorded the details of each government ?s regime, World War II in full swing, and her everyday challenges. She met a remarkable variety of people who became astonishingly

candid in her presence. And she documented
it all. [For a

survived the Soviet

her home
country,
Latvia, an ancient multicultural crossroads of
East and West
at the Baltic
Sea. In Fire

Burn, she describes that last year of peace while she studied chemical engineering at the University of Latvia. Then in 1940 two days after graduating (the only female among 150 students) the Soviets invaded. Terrible months of terror, torture, arrests, and deprivation followed for the citizens of Latvia. Leaving extended family

behind, Irene
and her mother
were able to escape to Germany where
another horror
awaited them –
the Nazi Regime. Irene
endured the
long war years,
working as a

chemist in a large chemical plant near Frankfurt am Main. She and her mother suffered hunger, cold, and the daily fear of death from continuous Allied bombing.

"We survived by

the grace of God," she says.
Liberation from
this harsh
existence came in the form of American
Occupation
Forces in the spring of 1945,
three days
before Easter.
Finally the bombing raids ended, but hunger persisted. No food was provided or could be bought. Irene found a job working for the U.S. Army - first as a secretary, then a dining hall hostess. She underwent and

recorded
entirely new and unexpected
experiences in
these roles.
She met and a
year later
married a young American
scientist, Dr.

Now sixty years
after the end
of World War

experiences.

She wants to

David is an outcast in the world of the living as well as among his own kind. He hates what he is and struggles against it, making him dangerous to those like him. He struggles to set matters right, getting the mortal where he rightfully belongs even if it means the end of his immortal existence.

With help from his newfound friends, he might just succeed, but what future awaits him if he does?

In Crumpled Paper Dolls: A New Orleans Poet, a book of poetry, prose, and journals, Matthew Nolan ignites our senses, depicts the world without filters, demands examination and self-reflection.

With the vivid imagery of words, he holds a mirror to our face and makes us see all we hide away. This at first seems like a distortion, but is really an honesty that makes us uncomfortable.

Nolan's journals chronicle the struggle of a man pursuing his dream in a world of trials and a mind of dark shadows. In Nolan's writing, nothing is good or bad. It just is. His writing takes us to a place we don't want to talk about, but now may be willing to discuss.
